

PROGRAM

*Southern Historical Association
83rd Annual Meeting
Dallas, Texas
Sheraton Dallas Hotel
November 9–12, 2017*

Changes are noted in red.

Thursday, November 9: 8:00–9:30 PM

Dallas Ballroom C

1. Opening Plenary: The Transformation of Texas and Its Effect on the Region and Nation

Presiding

Krys Boyd, Host of KERA's "Think"

Prophetic Places: Houston and Texas on the Cusp of a Changing America

Stephen Klineberg, Rice University

Toward A Blue Texas: Community Organizing and Coalition-Building, Past, Present, and Future

Max Krochmal, Texas Christian University

Following this session the Local Arrangements Committee will welcome the Southern Historical Association to Dallas with a reception in the Grand Hall.

Friday, November 10: 9:30–11:30 AM

Dallas A1

2. Loyalty or Treason?: Property, Status, and Community in Revolutionary Virginia

Presiding

Sarah Meacham, Virginia Commonwealth University

“It was an error in judgment and not of the heart”: Mary Willing Byrd and Political Loyalty in Revolutionary Virginia

Ami Pflugrad-Jackisch, University of Toledo

“Together We Survived”: Loyalist Communities, Networks, and Survival in Virginia during the American Revolution, 1770–1804

Stephanie Seal Walters, George Mason University

“Distresses of Mind, Body, and Estate”: The Connection Between Status and Property in Colonial Virginia as Exhibited by Loyalist Claims

Kasey Sease, The College of William and Mary

Comments

T. Cole Jones, Purdue University

Sarah Meacham

Friday, November 10: 9:30–11:30 AM

Dallas A2

3. Historicizing Homeplace: Home as a Site of Resistance for African American Women in the Nineteenth-Century South

Presiding

Leslie Harris, Northwestern University

Revolutionary Spaces: Enslaved Women and the Home in British-Occupied Charleston

Lauren Duval, American University

The Slave House: A Sacred Space of Resistance

Jobie Hill, Monticello–Thomas Jefferson Foundation and Saving Slave Houses

Racial Uplift and the Postbellum Southern Black Home: The Possibilities and Limitations of Homeplace

Whitney Nell Stewart, University of Texas at Dallas

Comments

Leslie Harris

Randolph Scully, George Mason University

Friday, November 10: 9:30–11:30 AM

Dallas A3

4. The Agency of Agents: Federal and State Employees and Their Role in Shaping the Nineteenth-Century Native South

Presiding

Barbara Krauthamer, University of Massachusetts, Amherst

Whose Civilization Plan Was It Anyways?: Chickasaws, Federal Agents, and the New Southern Economy in Chickasaw Country

Jeffrey Washburn, University of Mississippi

The 1842 Cherokee Claims: Exposing the Violence of Removal in Georgia

Adam Pratt, University of Scranton

Agents as Activists: The Case of John Sanborn and the Chickasaw Freedpeople

Alaina Roberts, Indiana University, Bloomington

Comments

David Nichols, Indiana State University

Andrew Denson, Western Carolina University

Friday, November 10: 9:30–11:30 AM

Dallas D1

5. New Ruptures, Margins, Exclusions, and Alliances: Toward a More Expansive History of Race in a Changing South

Presiding

Alexander X. Byrd, Rice University

Panelists

Vivek Bald, Massachusetts Institute of Technology

Uzma Quraishi, Sam Houston State University

Tyina Steptoe, University of Arizona

Julie M. Weise, University of Oregon

Alexander X. Byrd

Friday, November 10: 9:30–11:30 AM

Dallas D2

6. For the South and from the South: Regional Print Media and the Framing of Political Discourses

Presiding

Bob Jackson, University of Tulsa

Dying Hogs and Thieving Freedmen: Print Culture and Racial Control on Southern Plantations, 1860–1880

Erin Stewart Mauldin, Samford University

Les Genelles and the Politics of Art in 1940s Louisiana

Derek Wood, Tulane University

“Sorry about that, Gloria”: Southern Living Encounters the Women’s Movement

Melissa Estes Blair, Auburn University

Comments

Bob Jackson

Friday, November 10: 9:30–11:30 AM

Dallas D3

7. Southern Incarceration: Penitentiaries, Prisoners, and Police

Presiding

Heather Ann Thompson, University of Michigan

A Money Making Machine: Inmate Labor at Southern State Penitentiaries, 1798–1865

Brett J. Derbes, Texas State Historical Association

Incarceration Summer 1964: The Mississippi Highway Safety Patrol and the Roots of Rural Mass Incarceration

Justin Randolph, Yale University

Liminal Space as Protest: The War on Drugs and Anti-Prison Activism in New Orleans

Holly Genovese, Temple University

Comments

Alex Lichtenstein, Indiana University, Bloomington

Matthew Mancini, Saint Louis University

Friday, November 10: 9:30–11:30 AM

State Room 1

8. Slavery, Revolution, and Enlightenment: Rethinking Categories across the Americas

Kimberly Hanger Memorial Panel

Presiding

Sarah Pearsall, Cambridge University

Unshackling the Past: Slaves, Natives, and Enlightenment Temporality in Eighteenth-Century Spanish America

Bianca Premo, Florida International University

Enlightened Enslavement: New Departures and Older Precedents in Spanish American Slavery

Elena Schneider, University of California, Berkeley

Old Age in the New Republic: Elderly Slaves after the American Revolution

Dan Livesay, Claremont McKenna College

Comments

Sarah Pearsall

Friday, November 10: 9:30–11:30 AM

State Room 2

9. Roundtable: Legacy of Revolution in the Atlantic World

Presiding

David M. K. Sheinin, Trent University

Subsistence, Society, Commerce, and Culture in the Atlantic World in the Age of Revolution

Cynthia Bouton, Texas A&M University

Rethinking U.S. and French History through the Prism of the Haitian Revolution

Manuel Covo, University of California, Santa Barbara

When North Americans Looked South: The United States in an Age of American Revolutions, 1775–1825

Caitlin Fitz, Northwestern University

“L’Orgueil des mulâtres”*: Nineteenth-Century Depictions of Free Men of Color in the Haitian Revolution

~~John Garrigus, University of Texas at Arlington~~

The Long American Revolution and the Two Americas

Lester Langley, University of Georgia (emeritus)

Comments

David M. K. Sheinin

Friday, November 10: 9:30–11:30 AM

State Room 3

10. Social and Energy Policy in Twentieth-Century Germany and the Soviet Union

Presiding

Christopher J. Ward, Clayton State University

“If we were to add 100,000,000 to our 200,000,000, it would be too few!”:
The Abortion Procedure, Propaganda, and Pronatalist Policies in Khrushchev’s and Brezhnev’s Russia

Amanda Williams, University of Mississippi

Better Active Today Than Radioactive Tomorrow: West German Protests Against Nuclear Power during the Cold War

Nils Martin, James Madison University

The End of an Era: The West German Pension Reform Law of 1972 and the End of the Expansion of the German Welfare State

Alfred C. Mierzejewski, University of North Texas

Comments

Christopher J. Ward

Friday, November 10: 9:30–11:30 AM

State Room 4

11. Nations, Nationalism, and Immigration

Presiding

Nupur Chaudhuri, Texas Southern University

Looking Forward: The Liberal Forwards After the Armenian Massacres, 1896–1899

Lynda Kellam, University of North Carolina at Greensboro

Becoming Aware of the “Immigrant Problem”: The National Committee for Commonwealth Immigrants and British Race Relations

Brett M. Bebbler, Old Dominion University

Negotiating Nationalism in the Kaiserreich—Gustav Landauer Between Particularism and Universality

Benjamin R. Nestor, Marquette University

Comments

Molly Johnson, University of Alabama in Huntsville

Friday, November 10: 11:45–1:30 PM

Cityview 1

12. Phi Alpha Theta Luncheon

Presiding

Graydon A. Tunstall, Executive Director, Phi Alpha Theta History Honor Society

Memory, Monuments, and the Re-Gendering of Texas History

Sam W. Haynes, University of Texas at Arlington

Tickets may be purchased for $25.00. See page 5 of this program.

Friday, November 10: 11:45–1:30 PM

San Antonio B

13. Graduate Student Luncheon: Building Your Academic Brand

Sponsored in part by the John and LaWanda Cox Fund

This year's annual luncheon will seat graduate students with a scholar in an allied field for an intense small-group discussion of academic branding, professional networking, social media management, ways to pitch to publishers, and more. Confirmed scholars include Karen Cox (University of North Carolina, Charlotte), Judith Giesberg (Villanova University), Lesley J. Gordon (University of Alabama), Max Krochmal (Texas Christian University), Megan Kate Nelson (Independent Scholar), Rebecca Sharpless (Texas Christian University), Andrew J. Torget (University of North Texas), James Tuten (Juniata College), and Ben Wright (University of Texas at Dallas). Seating is limited so graduate students will be asked to preregister by emailing a short abstract (150–250 words) detailing their research interests for their faculty discussion leader. The Graduate Student Council will do their best to assign students to groups with similar interests. Participants must be members of the Southern Historical Association and registered for the conference. Preregistration email due by October 13 to shagraduatecouncil@gmail.com.

Friday, November 10: 12:00–2:00 PM

Dallas D1

14. Professional Development Workshop: How Many Committees Do I Have to Be On? Strategies for Professional Advancement

Sponsored by the Committee on Women, Gender, and Sexuality

Panelists

Michele Gillespie, Wake Forest University

Karen Kossie-Chernyshev, Texas Southern University

Melissa McEuen, Transylvania University

Jennifer Ritterhouse, George Mason University

Friday, November 10: 1:30–2:15 PM

Cityview 4

15. Southern Historical Association Business Meeting

Presiding

John B. Boles, Rice University

Friday, November 10: 2:30–4:30 PM

Dallas A1

16. New Perspectives on Southern Evangelical Antislavery Activism

Presiding

Stacey Robertson, State University of New York, Geneseo

White Southern Evangelicals and the Antislavery Politics of Salvation

Ben Wright, University of Texas at Dallas

In Search of the Land of Liberty: Southern Methodism, Migration, and the Politics of Slavery

Christopher Cannon Jones, Brigham Young University

Strategic Silence: Richard Furman, Antislavery Debate, and the Closing of the International Slave Trade in South Carolina

Kimberly Kellison, Baylor University

Comments

Richard S. Newman, Rochester Institute of Technology

Friday, November 10: 2:30–4:30 PM

Dallas A2

17. Early Indicators: Massive Data, Statistical Analysis, and the Life Cycle of Civil War Soldiers

Presiding

Earl J. Hess, Lincoln Memorial University

Creating Longitudinal Data Sets of Union Army Veterans: An Overview of the Early Indicators Project

Dora L. Costa, University of California, Los Angeles, and National Bureau of Economic Research

The POW Experience: African Americans as Union Soldiers and Veterans

Sven Wilson, Brigham Young University

Comments

Kathryn Shively-Meier, Virginia Commonwealth University

Lorien Foote, Texas A&M University

Friday, November 10: 2:30–4:30 PM

Dallas A3

18. The Culture of Capitalism and Slavery

Presiding

Gregory Downs, University of California, Davis

The Specter of Plantation Accounting: Records and Cotton Slavery, 1845–1861

Ian Beamish, University of Louisiana at Lafayette

Slave Economies in the Rhetoric of Plantation Capitalism in South Carolina, 1830–1860

Justene G. Hill, University of Virginia

Missionary Cotton: Saving Souls in Mississippi’s Cotton Kingdom

John Lindbeck, University of Mississippi

Comments

Richard Follett, University of Sussex

Gregory Downs

Friday, November 10: 2:30–4:30 PM

Dallas D2

19. Policing Transgressive Sexualities in the Civil War Era South

Presiding

LeeAnn Whites, University of Missouri and Filson Historical Society

“Strange Amalgamation & General Confusion”: Party Realignment as Sexual Transgression in Antebellum Political Culture

Joshua A. Lynn, Yale University

A Spectacle of Humiliation: The Emasculation of Soldiers in Civil War Prisons

Caroline Newhall, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill

Strange Political Bedfellows: Policing “Lewd and Abandoned Women” in Reconstruction-Era New Orleans

Elizabeth Parish Smith, University of Central Missouri

Comments

Sharon Romeo, University of Alberta

Michele Mitchell, New York University

Friday, November 10: 2:30–4:30 PM

Dallas D1

20. Considering Samuel S. Hill’s Southern Churches in Crisis after Fifty Years

Presiding

Ted Ownby, University of Mississippi

Panelists

Paul Harvey, University of Colorado, Colorado Springs

Sam Shepherd Jr., Centenary University

Laura Rominger Porter, Drake University

Charles A. Israel, Auburn University

Friday, November 10: 2:30–4:30 PM

Dallas D3

21. New Directions in the Rural War on Poverty

Presiding

Kent B. Germany, University of South Carolina

“The Man Who Owns the Land Owns You”: New Communities, Incorporated and the End of the Rural War on Poverty

James B. Wall, University of Georgia

Fighting the War on Poverty in Southwest Mississippi

Emma Folwell, Newman University

Comments

Susan Youngblood Ashmore, Emory University

Friday, November 10: 2:30–4:30 PM

State Room 1

22. “The Fate of the Nation Is in the Hands of Its Women”: Gender and White Supremacy in the Twentieth-Century South

Presiding

Karen Anderson, University of Arizona

“May Our Work Mean a New Era in the Life of America”: Protestant Women and the Origins of the W.K.K.K. in Arkansas and Missouri

Sean Rost, University of Missouri

“Intelligent Opposition to Forced Race Mixing”: Cornelia Dabney Tucker, Massive Resistance, and (New) Conservatism in South Carolina

Rebecca Brueckmann, University of Cologne

Gendering in the Afterlife: How White Supremacists Created the Perfect Martyr

Michele R. (Scout) Johnson, University of Arkansas

Comments

Elizabeth McRae, Western Carolina University

Jane Dailey, University of Chicago

Friday, November 10: 2:30–4:30 PM

State Room 2

23. Sin, Sex, and the Sunbelt: Southern Religion in Twentieth-Century Dallas

Presiding

J. Gordon Melton, Baylor University

Moral Voyeurism: Prostitutes, Religious Progressives, and the Big D

Leah LaGrone Ochoa, Texas Christian University

America’s Pastor, Texas’s Apostle: Billy Graham’s Five-Decade Membership at First Baptist Dallas

Joseph Locke, University of Houston, Victoria

The Bible and Baker v. Wade: The Religious Battle over Texas’s Homosexual Conduct Law

Wesley G. Phelps, Sam Houston State University

Comments

J. Gordon Melton

Erin A. Smith, University of Texas at Dallas

Friday, November 10: 2:30–4:30 PM

State Room 3

24. Foreigners in Mexico: Entertainers, Businessmen, and Government Officials

Presiding

Monica Rankin, University of Texas at Dallas

Nineteenth-Century Miners in Pachuca and Real del Monte: From Cornish Miners to Mexican Convict Laborers

Sandra Mendiola García, University of North Texas

Ricardo Bell: Mexican Clown and English Gentleman

Steven Bunker, University of Alabama

Murder at the Palace: Extradition, Race, and Civilization in Porfirian Mexico

David C. LaFavor, University of Texas at Arlington

How a Southern Farm Boy Became a Mexican Magnate: Commonalities Between Two Souths

Andrew Paxman, CIDE, Mexico City/Aguascalientes

Comments

Monica Rankin

Friday, November 10: 2:30–4:30 PM

State Room 4

25. Marginalized Individuals and Groups in Medieval and Early Modern Europe

Presiding

Lois L. Huneycutt, University of Missouri

The Goods, the Services, and the Currency of the Medieval Slave Trade

Christopher Paoella, University of Missouri

Lovesick for God: The Writings of Hadewijch and the Spread of Medical Ideas

Heather Thornton McRae, University of Missouri

Finding Falstaff: Shakespearian Era Culture's Creation of an Iconic Anti-Hero Movement

Tyler Cochran, University of Texas at Dallas

Comments

Tiffany A. Ziegler, Midwestern State University

Friday, November 10: 5:30–8:00 PM

Chaparral

26. Society of Civil War Historians Banquet

Presiding

Daniel Sutherland, Distinguished Professor, University of Arkansas

Southern Cross, North Star: Why the Middle Mattered—and Matters—to Civil War History

Christopher Phillips, University of Cincinnati

Dr. Phillips is the recipient of the 2017 Tom Watson Brown Book Award for his book, The Rivers Ran Backward: The Civil War and the Remaking of the American Middle Border (Oxford University Press, 2016). The dinner is open to SCWH members. Registration is required. Invitations will go out by September 1, with RSVPs to be received by October 1.

Friday, November 10: 8:00 PM

Dallas Ballroom C

27. Presidential Address

Presiding

Catherine Clinton, University of Texas at San Antonio

My Life with the Journal

John B. Boles, Rice University

The Presidential Address will be preceded by the presentation of the 2017 Southern Historical Association awards and prizes. A reception honoring President Boles will follow in Grand Hall sponsored by the Department of History, School of Humanities, and Office of the Provost, Rice University; Basic Books; and Naomi and Randal Hall.

Saturday, November 11: 8:00–9:30 AM

Cityview 2

28. Workshop: Crafting Your Book Proposal and Attracting a Publisher

Melody Herr, a seasoned professional with more than sixteen years of experience as an acquiring editor for university presses, hosts an informational workshop session on identifying and approaching publishers; drafting book proposals; and breaking into and crafting cover letters for publishers of creative nonfiction. Herr serves as Head of the Office of Scholarly Communications at the University of Arkansas.

Saturday, November 11: 9:30–11:30 AM

Dallas A1

29. Policing Slavery in the Antebellum Era

Presiding

Kate Masur, Northwestern University

The Border South’s “Quack Nostrum”: Federal Police Power, Slavery, and the Secession Crisis

Michael Robinson, University of Mobile

The Trouble with Policing: How Fugitive Slaves, Worried Officials, and Frustrated Slaveholders Upset the System

Adam Malka, University at Buffalo

Slavery, Politics, and the Problem of Legal Flexibility in Antebellum Washington, D.C.

Rachel Shelden, University of Oklahoma

Comments

Frank Towers, University of Calgary

Kate Masur

Saturday, November 11: 9:30–11:30 AM

Dallas A2

30. Slavery in the Early Republic

Presiding

Bernard Powers, College of Charleston

The Ties That Bind: People of Color in Charleston’s Church Records, 1784–1844

Margaret Wilson Gillikin, Winthrop University

Staples and Specialties: Regional Production for Charleston’s Urban Market, 1780–1840

Kelly Kean Sharp, University of California, Davis

Seeing Slavery: The Sensory and Spatial Transformation of the Plantation Landscape During the Eighteenth Century

Erin M. Holmes, University of South Carolina

Comments

Bernard Powers

Ben Marsh, University of Kent

Saturday, November 11: 9:30–11:30 AM

Dallas A3

31. The Value of Family: Capital, Credit, and Care in Antebellum Southern Families

Presiding

Kirsten Wood, Florida International University

Washington Family Fortune: Lineage and Social Capital in the Antebellum South

Cassandra Good, Marymount University

Creating an Affectionate Family: Family, Credit, and Nation Building in the Nineteenth-Century South

Mandy Cooper, Duke University

“Who by the ties of kindredship I ought to look for help & comfort”: Debt and Kinship Relations in the Early American South

Ivy Farr McIntyre, The Citadel

Comments

Honor Sachs, Western Carolina University

Kirsten Wood

Saturday, November 11: 9:30–11:30 AM

Dallas D1

32. University, Court, and Slave

Presiding

Anders Walker, Saint Louis University

Panelists

Al Brophy, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill

Martha Jones, John Hopkins University

Yvonne Pitts, Purdue University

Watson Jennison, University of North Carolina at Greensboro

Saturday, November 11: 9:30–11:30 AM

Dallas D2

33. LGBT Politics and Visibility in Recent Southern History

Presiding

Jennifer D. Jones, University of Alabama

Sanctified Sexualities: The History and Meaning of Faith Temple Church

Jonathan Bailey, Morgan State University

“By Keeping It Quiet, I Can’t Help Anyone Else Understand It”: People with AIDS and Activist Testimony in 1980s Louisiana

Daniel Manuel, Rutgers University

Pat McCrory and HB2: A Long History of Discrimination against Queer Southerners in North Carolina

LaShonda Mims, Towson University

Comments

Jennifer D. Jones

Saturday, November 11: 9:30–11:30 AM

Dallas D3

34. Planters, Doctors, and Ecologists: Writing Southern History through the History of Science

Presiding

Mark Hersey, Mississippi State University

Rush Nutt and the Southern Enlightenment

Timothy Minella, Emory University

The American South's "Mutant Ecologies": Eugene Odum, the Savannah River Ecology Laboratory, and Nuclear Burdens

Caroline Peyton, Cameron University

Insanity and "Appendectomies": The Employment of State Hospital Institutionalization and Compulsory Sterilization during the Civil Rights Movement in Mississippi

Michael Murphy, Mississippi State University

Comments

Barbara Hahn, Texas Tech University

Tom Okie, Kennesaw State University

Saturday, November 11: 9:30–11:30 AM

State Room 1

35. Slavery and Emancipation in the British Caribbean

Presiding

William Van Norman, James Madison University

Sail for Freedom: Maritime Maroons in the Wake of British Emancipation

Amitava Chowdhury, Queen's University

Black Skins, Red Coats: The Carolina Corps and Racial Identity in the British Caribbean

Gary Sellick, University of South Carolina

Entangled Emancipation: The West Africa Squadron on the Periphery of Liberty

Lewis Eliot, University of South Carolina

Political Rumors and Religious Visions: Caribbean Slaves' Expectations of Intervention and Emancipation

Matthew Harper, Mercer University

Comments

William Van Norman

Saturday, November 11: 9:30–11:30 AM

State Room 2

36. Violence and Redemption in the Caribbean World

Presiding

Tiffany Sippial, Auburn University

Converging Masculinities: Friendship and Violence against Quakers in Seventeenth-Century Barbados

Eric McDonald, University of Houston

“A Cruel, Inhumane and Barbarous Manner”: Expanding the Boundaries of Violence in Colonial Jamaica

~~Christine Walker, Yale-NUS College~~

Performing Faith: Sacred Knowledge and Rite-Making in Puerto Rican Prisons, 1940s and 1950s

Alberto Ortiz, University of Wisconsin, Madison

Comments

Sherry Johnson, Florida International University

Saturday, November 11: 9:30–11:30 AM

State Room 3

37. The Advantages and Disadvantages of Using Games and Simulations to Teach European Military History

Presiding

Howard D. Miller, Lipscomb University

War. War Never Changes.

Kim Klimek, Metropolitan State University, Denver

Designing Assignments using World of Warcraft and Other Modern Games

Tiffany A. Ziegler, Midwestern State University

Teaching with Simulations

Wayne Bowen, University of Central Florida

Comments

The Audience

Saturday, November 11: 9:30–11:30 AM

State Room 4

38. Gender Still Matters: A Roundtable on Teaching European Women's and Gender History in the Decade following History Matters: Patriarchy and the Challenge of Feminism by Judith M. Bennett

Presiding

Lois L. Huneycutt, University of Missouri

Panelists

Lois L. Huneycutt

Andrew Holt, Florida State College, Jacksonville

Linda Reeder, University of Missouri

Molly Johnson, University of Alabama in Huntsville

Saturday, November 11: 11:45 AM–1:30 PM

Cityview 1

39. Southern Labor Studies Association Luncheon

Presiding

Robert Korstad, Duke University

“To have enough to carry me ... if he has not”: Women, Work, and Gendered Expectations in the Nineteenth-Century South

Beth English, Princeton University

Tickets may be purchased by sending a check for $25.00 by October 14 to Evan P. Bennett, Department of History, Florida Atlantic University, 777 Glades Road, AH 107, Boca Raton, FL 33431. For more information see <http://www.southernlaborstudies.org>.

Saturday, November 11: 11:45 AM–1:30 PM

Cityview 2

40. European History Section Luncheon

Presiding

Maura Hametz, Old Dominion University

Gender, War and Memory: Women and the Military in the Age of the World Wars

Karen Hagemann, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill

Tickets may be purchased for $25.00. See page 5 of this program.

Saturday, November 11: 11:45 AM–1:30 PM

Cityview 3

41. Latin American and Caribbean Section Luncheon

Presiding

Omar Valerio-Jiménez, University of Texas at San Antonio

Anxiety, Fear, and National Identity: Anti-Immigration Politics and the Changing Face of America

Neil Foley, Southern Methodist University

Tickets may be purchased for $25.00. See page 5 of this program.

Saturday, November 11: 12:00 PM–2:00 PM

Dallas D1

42. Southern History in the Headlines

Southern History in the Headlines is an annual forum that encourages content experts to ruminate on events in the current news cycle that have the potential to deeply shape the future history of the South. This year's panelists will take on such topics as criminal justice reform, health care, and Trumpism in the South. Check back here and your Twitter feed for updates and further details.

Saturday, November 11: 12:00–2:00 PM

State Room 2

43. Historically Black Colleges and Universities: Triumphs, Challenges, and Prospects

Sponsored by the Committee on Minorities in the SHA

Presiding

Bertis English, Alabama State University

Panelists

Phyllis Dawkins, President, Bennett College

Emily Jenkins, Senior Vice President, General Counsel, and Chief Relations Officer,
Thurgood Marshall College Fund

Austin Lane, President, Texas Southern University

Leon Wilson, Interim President, Alabama State University

Saturday, November 11: 2:30–4:30 PM

State Room 4

44. The Value of Medicine, Public Health, and Disability Studies in the History Classroom

Presiding

Shauna Devine, Western University

Panelists

Lisa J. Pruitt, Middle Tennessee State University

Karen D. Ross, Troy University

Savannah Williamson, Stephen F. Austin State University

Jennifer Rogers, Georgia State University

Saturday, November 11: 2:30–4:30 PM

Dallas A2

45. Loyalty Under Pressure: Allegiance, Class, and Gender in the Civil War South

Presiding

George C. Rable, University of Alabama

“The Presence of a Lady”: The Mount Vernon Ladies’ Association and Confederate Loyalty in the Civil War

Kristen Brill, Keele University

“It Will Take a Man Person with You to ... Keep the Place Up”: Common White Households and the Problem of Confederate Loyalty

Patrick J. Doyle, Royal Holloway, University of London

“I Have Given a Citizen to the Republic”: Confederate Soldiers’ Wives and the Meaning of Sacrifice in the Civil War South

Brian Langley, Northumbria University

Comments

Paul Quigley, Virginia Tech

Jacqueline Glass Campbell, Francis Marion University

Saturday, November 11: 2:30–4:30 PM

Dallas A3

46. The Old History of Capitalism

Presiding

David Carlton, Vanderbilt University

Financing Reunion: Lawyer Debt Collectors and the Post-War Economy

Justin L. Simard, The Baldy Center for Law and Social Policy

Informal Law and the Political Economy of Emancipation

Adam Jacob Wolkoff, University at Buffalo

Property, State Power, and Foreign Corporations after the Civil War

Emma Teitelman, University of Pennsylvania

Comments

Roseanne Currarino, Queen's University

Scott Nelson, University of Georgia

Saturday, November 11: 2:30–4:30 PM

Dallas D1

47. Southern Native Resilience and Nation-Building in the Twentieth Century: A Roundtable Discussion

Presiding

Denise E. Bates, Arizona State University

Panelists

Mikaëla M. Adams, University of Mississippi

Robert Caldwell, University of Texas at Arlington

Christopher Arris Oakley, East Carolina University

Marvin “Marty” Richardson, University of North Carolina at Pembroke

Brooke Bauer, University of South Carolina, Lancaster

Saturday, November 11: 2:30–4:30 PM

Dallas D2

48. Southern Segregationists, Southern Africans, and the Global Resonance of the Radical Right

Presiding

Joseph Crespino, Emory University

Partnerships of Supremacy: How American Segregationists Internationalized the Challenge to Jim Crow, 1948–1965

Zoe L. Hyman, University College London

“The Will to Rule a Civilization Built by Better Men”: American Southerners, Transatlantic Whiteness, and the Rogue State of Rhodesia, 1965–1980

Kyle Burke, Temple University

White Regimes, White Radicals, and White Academies: The Citizens’ Council Movement after 1965

Stephanie R. Rolph, Millsaps College

Comments

Joseph Crespino

Thomas J. Noer, Carthage College

Saturday, November 11: 2:30–4:30 PM

Dallas D3

49. Black Culture, Black Capitalism, and Black Political Activism in the Post-1965 South

Presiding

Shennette M. Garrett-Scott, University of Mississippi

Soul Food Moves Downtown: Selling a Black National Cuisine

Jennifer Jensen Wallach, University of North Texas

“A Chance to Bloom”: John Hervey Wheeler, Black Business, and Urban Renewal in the New South, 1950s–1970s

Brandon K. Winford, University of Tennessee, Knoxville

The Tax Reform Act of 1969 and the Undermining of the Southern African American Vote

Evan Faulkenbury, State University of New York, Cortland

Comments

Charles W. McKinney, Rhodes College

Katherine Charron, North Carolina State University

Saturday, November 11: 2:30–4:30 PM

State Room 1

50. Indigenous-European Interactions in Peripheral Spaces

Presiding

Tamara Spike, University of North Georgia

Discursive Histories of Nahualismo: Social Transformations Surrounding Indigenous Ritual Specialists in Court Narratives of New Spain, 1536–1760

Tania Bride, University of California, Los Angeles

Indian Warner’s World: Slavery, War, and Kinship in the Seventeenth-Century Caribbean

Nathaniel Millett, Saint Louis University

Subverting the United States’ Authority from the Imperial Edge: Bahamian–Native American Interactions in the U.S.–Spanish Florida Borderlands

Ross Nederveld, Florida International University

From Indigenous Resistance to Regional Autonomy: Sandinista/Costeño Relations in Revolutionary Nicaragua

John-Paul Wilson, St. John’s University

Comments

Matt Childs, University of South Carolina

Saturday, November 11: 2:30–4:30 PM

State Room 2

51. Cultures of Imperialism

Presiding

Theron Corse, Tennessee State University

Jim Crow’s Imperial Mission: Southern Democrats and U.S. Racial Empire from the War of 1898 to Good Neighbor Policy

Don Polite Jr., University of South Carolina

“Of White Descendant, But Not of Pure White Race”: Mobilization, Segregation, and Constructions of Whiteness in Puerto Rico, 1917–1934

Micah Wright, Texas A&M University

Educating the Americas: Fighting the Cold War through Education and the Modernization of Latin America

Eric Martell, University at Albany

Comments

Robert Smale, University of Missouri

Saturday, November 11: 2:30–4:30 PM

State Room 3

52. The Legacies of the First World War

Presiding

Jeffrey D. Burson, Georgia Southern University

Iron Harvests on the Old Front Lines: The Environmental Legacies of the First World War

Tait Keller, Rhodes College

The Stahlhelm Abroad: Veterans and Weimar Politics among the German Diaspora

Erin Hochman, Southern Methodist University

The Cult of the Fallen Soldier in Post-World War I Germany

Brian K. Feltman, Georgia Southern University

Comments

Geoffrey Wawro, University of North Texas

Saturday, November 11: 4:45–6:30 PM

San Antonio B

53. Southern Association for Women Historians Annual Address

Presiding

Megan Taylor-Shockley, Clemson University

Awful Calamity: Sentiment, Gender, and the Nation in the Richmond Theater Fire of 1811

Cynthia Kierner, George Mason University

The presentation of awards and a brief business meeting will precede Kierner's talk. A reception honoring Megan Taylor-Shockley, SAWH President, will immediately follow the talk in Remington.

*Sunday, November 12: 9:00–11:00 AMDallas A154. Family Loyalties and Tensions in the Early SouthPresiding

James Marten, Marquette University

“Scorned by Every Man of Honour”: Family, Manliness, and the Middleton Divorce Case

Lynn Kennedy, University of Lethbridge

Being Jefferson’s “Adoptive Son”: William Short and the Politics of Race

Cara Rogers, Rice University

Growing Up in Between: Children as Intermediaries Among the Choctaws and Chickasaws

Brandon Layton, University of California, Davis

Comments

Cynthia Kierner, George Mason University

James Marten

*Sunday, November 12: 9:00–11:00 AMDallas A255. Race, Religion, and the Republic: Effects of Transatlantic Influence on Proslavery Southern PhilosophiesPresiding

Matthew J. Karp, Princeton University

John C. Calhoun, Anna Calhoun Clemson, and the Revolutions of 1848

Robert Elder, Valparaiso University

Englishman turned Carolinian: Thomas Cooper’s Thought on Race, Republics, and Religion

Jamie Diane Wilson, University of South Carolina

“Our European Home”: The Transatlantic Career of Robert Woodward Barnwell Jr.

Joel R. Iliff, Baylor University

Comments

Douglas A. Thompson, Mercer University

Craig B. Hollander, The College of New Jersey

Sunday, November 12: 9:00–11:00 AM

Dallas A3

56. Coercion by Any Other Name: Reconstruction of White Supremacy in the Long Nineteenth Century

Presiding

W. Caleb McDaniel, Rice University

Engineering the Electorate: How 1890s Texas Conservatives Transformed Voter Registration and the “Secret Ballot” into an Instrument for Voter Suppression

Bobby Oliver, Texas Christian University

Raising Cane and Razing Men: A Gendered View of the Texas Prison Empire, 1871–1920

Jermaine Thibodeaux, University of Texas at Austin

From Imyack to Maine: Three African Boys, the Illegal Slave Trade, and the United States, 1845–1855

Kate McMahon, Howard University

Comments

W. Caleb McDaniel

Natalie J. Ring, University of Texas at Dallas

Sunday, November 12: 9:00–11:00 AM

Dallas D1

57. A Little Way Up North: Southern Politics and the Nation’s Capital

Presiding

J. Todd Moye, University of North Texas

“Cesspool of Crime”: Congressional Southerners, Civil Rights, and Crime in Washington, D.C.

Kyla Sommers, George Washington University

Invisible Government: The Klanning of American Politics in the 1920s

Felix Harcourt, Emory University

A Manifest Usurpation: The Warren Court, Its Southern Critics, and the Apportionment Revolution

Christopher Hickman, Tarleton State University

Comments

Jeffrey Bloodworth, Gannon University

J. Todd Moye

*Sunday, November 12: 9:00–11:00 AMDallas D258. Dis-United Methodists and Social Change in the Post-War SouthPresiding

John M. Giggie, University of Alabama

The Ruth Carter Auxiliary: Women's Support for People's Community Center in New Orleans's Central City

Ellen Blue, Phillips Theological Seminary

Southern Women and the Methodist Social Creed, 1945–1980

Janet Allured, McNeese State University

Mississippi Methodism in Transition: Grappling with Race and Women Clergy, 1970–1995

Joseph T. Reiff, Emory & Henry College

Comments

Mary E. Frederickson, Emory University

John M. Giggie

*Sunday, November 12: 9:00–11:00 AMDallas D359. Away Down South in Dallas: Politics, Region, and Identity in Dallas since 1945Presiding

Michelle Nickerson, Loyola University, Chicago

The Benefactor: Nelson Bunker Hunt and the John Birch Society

Edward H. Miller, Northeastern University

Black Women, Blue Injustice: Organizing Against Police Brutality in Dallas, Texas

Katherine E. Bynum, Texas Christian University

Parkie Politics: Race, Space, and Belonging in Postwar Park Cities, Texas

Paul Mokrzycki Renfro, Southern Methodist University

Comments

Sean Cunningham, Texas Tech University

Michelle Nickerson

Sunday, November 12: 9:00–11:00 AM

State Room 1

60. Borders, Migrations, and Place

Presiding

Gabriela Gonzalez, University of Texas at San Antonio

Barbadians Encounter the African Coast: Settlement, Identity, and Stratification in Liberia

Caree Banton, University of Arkansas

California and the Remaking of the State: Citizenship and State Power in Early Statehood California

Camille Suárez, University of Pennsylvania

Developing the Ideal City: Space and Landscape in the Social History of Twentieth-Century Urban Mexico

Brad Wright, Middle Tennessee State University

Across the Border and Back Again: Feminization of Migration in Two Twin Cities, 1950–2000

Erika Rendón-Ramos, Rice University

Comments

Catherine Nolan-Ferrell, University of Texas at San Antonio

Sunday, November 12: 9:00–11:00 AM

State Room 2

61. Europeans and the Post–Civil War United States, 1865–1872

Presiding

Patrick J. Kelly, University of Texas at San Antonio

From Revolution to Reconstruction

David Prior, University of New Mexico

Daniel Sickles’s Republic?: The Civil War and the Spanish Republic

Gregory P. Downs, University of California, Davis

German Americans and U.S. Arms Sales to the French, 1870–1872

Alison Clark Efford, Marquette University

Comments

Enrico Dal Lago, National University of Ireland, Galway

Sunday, November 12: 9:00–11:00 AM

State Room 3

62. The Social History of Ideological Networks: Slavery and Abolition in Europe and the Plantation Americas

Presiding

Maurice Jackson, Georgetown University

Learning to Fear Slave Rebellion: How Personal Experience and Intercolonial News Fostered Expectations of Violence in the Eighteenth Century

Jason T. Sharples, Florida Atlantic University

Trafficking in Personal Experiences and Quaker Thought: Clapham's West Atlantic Roots, 1750s–1780s

Ryan J. Butler, Baylor University

“Zealously Exonerating Emancipation”: The British and American Fact-Finding Missions in the West Indies, 1836–1838

William E. Skidmore II, Rice University

Comments

Kate Carté Engel, Southern Methodist University

Maurice Jackson

PHI ALPHA THETA SESSIONS

Friday, November 10: 4:45–6:15 PM

State Room 1

PAT 1: World War I

Presiding

Graydon Tunstall, University of South Florida

Maria Bochkareva and the Russian Women's Battalions in WWI

Lisa Zakharova, Sul Ross State University

Imperialism Comes Home to Roost: Germany's Military Occupation of Belgium in the First World War

Davis Stubblefield, Trinity University

World War I and Martial Citizenship: African-American Expectations, Jim Crow Reality, and the Radicalized New Negro

Michael McDonald, University of Texas at San Antonio

The Memory of WWI

Jennifer Pitchford, West Texas A&M University

Comments

Graydon Tunstall

Friday, November 10: 4:45–6:15 PM

State Room 2

PAT 2: Cultures

Presiding

Monica Rankin, University of Texas at Dallas

The Cultural Significance found in German Expressionism

Alyssa Phillips, Sam Houston State University

Ritual and Symbolism in the Cult of National Socialism: Appropriation of Christian Faith Traditions in Leni Riefenstahl's Triumph of the Will (1935), Veit Harlan's Jud Süß (1940) and Kolberg (1945)

Carrie C. Hatfield, University of Houston, Clear Lake

The Division of a People as Portrayed in European Cinema

Taylor Frazee, University of Houston, Clear Lake

Comments

Monica Rankin

Saturday, November 11: 2:30–4:00 PM

Dallas A1

PAT 3: WWII in the Pacific

Presiding

Sandra Mendiola García, University of North Texas

Descent Into Hell: What Precipitated American Atrocities in the Pacific Theatre During WWII

Lillian Yount, University of Texas at Austin

MacArthur and Japan's Private Sector: The Origins of the Zaibatsu Dissolution Program

Noor Jafri, Tarleton State University

Atomic Memories: Atomic Power and Its Effects on American and Japanese Science Fiction Cinema of the 1950s

Seth Barrett, Lamar University

Comments

Sandra Mendiola García

Saturday, November 11: 4:45–6:15 PM

State Room 1

PAT 4: World History

Presiding

John Belohlavek, University of South Florida

1898: The Start of American Imperialism, or Its End?

Tyler Miller, University of Washington, Tacoma

The Bolshevik Revolution: 'Peace, Bread, Land'

Zoe Sieck and Bridget Bell, West Texas A&M University

Women Nationalism in the Nineteenth and Twentieth Century Ghana and Zimbabwe: A Case Study of Charwe Nehanda Nyakasikana and Yaa Asantewaa

Abdul Kuba, University of Texas at San Antonio

Invaluable Military Assets: The Frontiersman of the Mexican-American War, 1846–1848

Ash Seidl-Staley, University of Texas at Dallas

Comments

John Belohlavek

Saturday, November 11: 4:45–6:15 PM

State Room 2

PAT 5: Potpourri

Presiding

Tiffany Ziegler, Midwestern State University

By the Books: The Nation of Islam's Transition to Sunni Islam in Houston, Texas

Ahmed H. Sharma, University of Houston

Rainbow Connections: The Transatlantic Career Network of Jim Henson

William J. Hansard, University of Texas at Arlington

Inter-American Education Exchange During the Cold War

Timothy Carter, University of Texas at Tyler

The Quest for Bodily Autonomy: Abortion Access Before, During, and After the Rise of the Religious Right

Amy Bushong, University of Texas at Austin

Comments

Tiffany Ziegler

Sunday, November 12: 9:00–10:30 AM

Cityview 1

PAT 6: U.S. History

Presiding

Monica Rankin, University of Texas at Dallas

The Forty-fifth Illinois Volunteer Infantry Regiment and the Battle at the Third Louisiana Redan

Thomas B. Mack, University of North Texas

Paul Revere, More Than a Midnight Rider

Stuart Fant, Midwestern State University

Parks for the Public: Lyndon B. Johnson Administration's Contributions to the National Park System

Sarah Brown, Tarleton State University

A House Divided: The Schizophrenic Nature of the Whig Party during the Presidential Election of 1844 as Portrayed by The Republican of Woodville, Mississippi

Laura Smith, University of Mississippi

Comments

Monica Rankin

Sunday, November 12: 9:00–10:30 AM

Cityview 2

PAT 7: Potpourri

Presiding

Mark Barringer, Stephen F. Austin State University

Peculiar Rangers: Understanding the Role of Body Servants in Terry's Texas Rangers

Brian Elliott, University of North Texas

Bring On Your Coolies: Chinese Plantation Laborers in the Post–Civil War South

Brandon Treviño, University of Texas at San Antonio

A Review of the Gallowglass

Brooke Franks, Sam Houston State University

Comments

Mark Barringer

SOUTHERN CONFERENCE ON BRITISH STUDIES

Friday, November 10, 8:15–8:45 AM

Trinity 4

Coffee/tea

Friday, November 10, 8:45–10:30 AM

Trinity 4

SCBS 1. Ordering Utopia

Presiding

Eric Reisenauer, University of South Carolina, Sumter

Parasite's Progress: Primitive Accusation, Catholic Timelessness, and the Lower Senses in Western Utopian Consciousness

Andrew Kettler, University of South Carolina

An Unlikely Utopia: British Socialism and the Soviet Trade of Utopian Ideals in Penal Politics, 1918–1925

Max Hodgson, University of Reading

Valley Section: Geddes, Tel Aviv, London and the Move from the Sacred to the Secular

Deborah Lewittes, City University of New York

Comments

Eric Reisenauer

Friday, November 10, 8:45–10:30 AM

Trinity 5

SCBS 2. Medical Matters

Presiding

William Meier, Texas Christian University

Poison for All: Arsenic Crisis in 1830s Britain

Sarah Lewin, Mississippi State University

The Healthiest People in the World: Tristan da Cunha as Medical and Dental Utopia, 1920–1940

Christopher Maternowski, University of Virginia

X. v. the United Kingdom: Human Rights and the Internationalization of British Mental Health Activism, 1971–1983

Charles Hamilton, University of Virginia

Comments

William Meier

Friday, November 10, 10:30–11:00 AM

Trinity 4

Coffee/tea break

Friday, November 10, 11:00 AM–12:45 PM

Trinity 4

SCBS 3. Gender and Dystopia

Presiding

Bonnie White, Memorial University of Newfoundland

The Fight for Éire: The Regenerative Powers of Masculinity in Forging an Irish Utopia

Nick Sprenger, Texas A&M University, Commerce

“Adam Barred from Eden”: Gender Dystopia and the All-Female Farm Colonies in Interwar Britain

Bonnie White, Memorial University of Newfoundland

Toxic Masculinity Personified: Reading Never Let Me Go as Gender Criticism

Sean Rachel Mardell, Texas State University

Comments

The Audience

Friday, November 10, 11:00 AM–12:45 PM

Trinity 5

SCBS 4. Memorializing Empire and War: Monuments and the Formation of Identity and Memory

Presiding

Kirsten Carter McKee, University of Edinburgh

Webs of Identity and Memory: The Joseph Brant Statue in Canada, 1886–2000

Derek N. Boetcher, University of Florida

Victors and Losers: War Memorials of the Great War in Germany and Great Britain

Simone C. De Santiago Ramos, North Central Texas College

Scottish National War Memorial: Memory, Identity, and Nation-Building

Fiona Foster, University of Mississippi

Comments

Kirsten Carter McKee

Friday, November 10, 1:00–2:15 PM

Cityview 4

SCBS Executive Council meeting

Friday, November 10, 2:30–4:15 PM

Trinity 4

SCBS 5. Fanatical Visions

Presiding

Mark Lester, Birmingham-Southern College

“The Fruits of Popery...eternal destruction of immortal souls”: The Protestant Press and Anti-Irish Propaganda during the Age of Reform, 1835–1841

Jay Rozman, Carnegie Mellon University

Islam, Fanaticism, and the Late-Victorian Press

Michael de Nie, University of West Georgia

Fanatical Violence in the Empire: The Case of India, c. 1895–1915

William Meier, Texas Christian University

Comments

Mark Lester

Friday, November 10, 2:30–4:15 PM

Trinity 5

SCBS 6. Money Matters

Presiding

Rebecca Hayes, North Virginia Community College

Intellectual Circles and Collecting South Asian Coins in Georgian Britain: The Indian Specie and Collecting Practices of Sarah Sophia Banks

Patrick D. Rasico, Vanderbilt University

Humphry Morice: Slave-trader, Banker, Embezzler, Suicide

Matthew David Mitchell, Sewanee: The University of the South

“An Individual Contribution towards Overcoming a National Crisis”: Queen Mary’s Carpet and the Dollar Crisis, 1950–1951

Mary Ann Heiss, Kent State University

Comments

Rebecca Hayes

Friday, November 10, 4:30–5:45 PM

Trinity 4

SCBS 7. Power and Authority in the Atlantic World

Presiding

John Mitcham, Duquesne University

From Possibility to “Nova Scarcity”: Colonial Perceptions of Empire and Opportunity in Eighteenth Century Nova Scotia

G. Patrick O’Brien, University of South Carolina

Degrees of Separation: Comparing Runaway Indentured Servant Advertisements from London to British America, 1720–1776

Amanda P. McGee, University of Arkansas

Benjamin Franklin, Bourgeois Radicalism, and the Fate of the “Empire of Liberty” in British North America

James M. Vaughn, University of Texas at Austin

Recalibrating Religious Authority: Malcolm Muggeridge’s Fan Mail in Anti-Institutional Perspective, ca. 1964–1982

David G. Reagles, Drew University

Comments

John Mitcham

Friday, November 10, 4:30–5:45 PM

Trinity 5

SCBS 8. Women, Morality, and Politics

Presiding

Bonnie White, Memorial University of Newfoundland

What to Do When the Dishes are Done: The Old Woman and Evangelical Concepts of Leisure

Kaitlyn Waynen, Texas Woman’s University

Frustrated Ambition: Elite Victorian Women Reformers and Prostitution

Ann Riley-Adams, University of Central Oklahoma

“The Women Who Make the Guns”: How Far-Leftists in World War I Glasgow and Paris Failed to Attract the Munitionettes to their Cause

Gary Girod, University of Houston

Comments

Bonnie White

Friday, November 10, 4:30–5:45 PM

Cityview 2

SCBS 9. Early Modern Religion and Politics

Presiding

Victor Stater, Louisiana State University

“To Keep His Subjects Low”: A Machiavellian Interpretation of Henry VII

John Harris, University of Texas at Arlington

Defining Evangelicalism: Theology in the Reign of Edward VI

Karl Gunther, University of Miami

Conflict of Interest: Theological Confusion in Cranmer’s Edwardian Educational Writings?

Amanda Wrenn Allen, Brewton-Parker College

Comments

Victor Stater

Saturday, November 11, 8:15–8:45 AM

Coffee/tea

Saturday, November 11, 8:45–10:30 AM

Trinity 4

SCBS 10. Colonial Utopias

Presiding

Chloe Northrop, Tarrant County College

Thomas More’s Utopia and Colonization of North America

Lydia Towns, University of Texas at Arlington

The Earls of Egmont: Father and Son and Projectors of Two Colonial Utopias, 1732–1767

Andrew Lannen, Stephen F. Austin State University

“Reproachful, Scandalous, or Injurious”: Creating Utopia through the Protection of the Body in Scotland’s Colony of Panama

Gina Bennett, University of Texas at Arlington

Comments

Chloe Northrop

*Saturday, November 11, 8:45–10:30 AMTrinity 5SCBS 11. Spices, Gold, and Credit: Economic Change and Political Culture in England during the Long Seventeenth CenturyPresiding

Robert Ingram, Ohio University

Stock-jobbers and Their Discontents: Protest and Political Entrenchment in the Wake of the Financial Revolution

Abigail Swingen, Texas Tech University

“This Publick Calamity”: The Stop of the Exchequer Re-revisited

Rob Hermann, University of Louisiana at Lafayette

Spices, the East India Company, and the Origins of Anti-Dutch Sentiment in England in the Sixteenth and Early Seventeenth Centuries

Heather Turbeville, Texas Tech University

Comments

Robert Ingram

*Saturday, November 11, 10:30–11:00 AMTrinity 4Coffee/tea breakSaturday, November 11, 11:00 AM–12:45 PMTrinity 4SCBS 12. The Scotch-Irish and an American UtopiaPresiding

Katherine Grenier, The Citadel

Spirits of the Frontier: Whiskey, Debauchery, and Botched Imperial Ambitions in the British North American Backcountry

Kristen Burton, Louisiana Tech University

Networks and Chain Migration Among Irish Protestants in the Early Twentieth Century

Cory Wells, University of Texas at Arlington

The Scotch-Irish and the West, 1870–1920

Lindsey Flewelling, History Colorado

Comments

Katherine Grenier

Saturday, November 11, 11:00 AM–12:45 PM

Trinity 5

SCBS 13. Indian Dreams and Fantasies

Presiding

Caroline Ritter, Texas State University

Dreams about Unity: CSP, CPGB, CPI and India's United Front

William F. Kuracina, Texas A&M University, Commerce

Militarism without Violence: Fantasies of the Sword in the British Indian Army

Kate Imy, University of North Texas

Comments

Caroline Ritter

Saturday, November 11, 2:30–4:15 PM

Trinity 4

SCBS 14. Sentimental Journeys?

Presiding

Michael de Nie, University of West Georgia

Sentiment in Nineteenth-Century Parliamentary Debates

Katherine Harclerode, Southern Methodist University

Charity Organization Society and the Elberfeld System: An International Method of Poor Relief

Rebekah McMillan, University of Arkansas

Songs for the Future, 1870–1930

Quinn Sicking, Texas A&M University, Commerce

Comments

Michael de Nie

Saturday, November 11, 2:30–4:15 PM

Trinity 5

SCBS 15. Image, Authority, and Power in Early Modern England

Presiding

Karl Gunther, University of Miami

Visual Perception of Authority: How Clothes Really Did Make the Man in the Sixteenth-Century Medical Market Place

Erin Halloran, Louisiana State University

Charles I and “Elizabethanism”: The Role of Print Propaganda in Re-creating a Protestant War Hero

Jessica Payne, Louisiana State University

From Medieval to Early Modern: The Era of Personal Monarchy under Henry VIII

Elizabeth Taylor, Louisiana State University

Comments

Karl Gunther

Saturday, November 11, 4:30–5:45

Cityview 2

SCBS 16. Plenary Lecture

Presiding

Karl Gunther, University of Miami

A View of America: Newgate Prison, 1795

James Epstein, Vanderbilt University

Saturday, November 11, 5:45–6:45

Cityview 4

Southern Conference on British Studies membership meeting